POSTOFFICE,

PLAINWELL,
ALLEGAN COUNTY,
MICHIGAN.

September 6th 1892

O. H. & K. Chapman
Dear Sirs.

I received your letter in due time, and saw Mr. Roberts soon after receiving it, and laid the matter before him. He expressed great surprise, claimed there were such transactions between you, as to leave you the debtors and not the Creditors. The reason I did not answer was, that he asked and demanded the privilege of replying, and came back to the office the second time for a minute of the amount you claimed. He was then on the way to Kalamazoo, and said he would write you from there at once, and explain and straighten matters between you. Not hearing further from either, I supposed he had done so.

He is now in Kalamazoo, and has been since I received your letter.

I think he will pay if satisfied of the indebtedness, but I do not think a collection can be forced against him.

If I could see him, I would endeavor to get it, but as I cannot think you had better correspond with some one there.

If you so desire address

Messrs Howard & Root attys

Kalamazoo Mich

They will give it prompt attention I am sure

Respy Yours
